Trafodwyd prisiau am y gwaith oedd ei angen i adeilad y clwb ffitrwydd, argymhell derbyn pris Pritchard am y gwaith. Dim gwrthwynebiad. Byddai hefyd ofyn i'r contractiwr gynnwys torri gwair cae chwarae Tregele. Roedd y cae yma i fod i gael ei dorri gan wirfoddolwyr ond roedd yr aroglygon chwarterol yn aml yn nodi bod y gwair heb ei dorri. Cytunwyd yn unfrydol i ymestyn y cytundeb.

Carys gave a report outlining the finance committee's discussions. It was noted that a number of payments were approved – if members required further information a list was available from the clerk. A discussion was had on the quotes for the work needed to build the fitness club. It was recommended to accept Pritchard's quote for the work. No objection. A monthly report was given, as always, and it was noted that £9.9k had been received from the car park this year, despite the Covid-19 pandemic.

Reports on the safety of the playing fields were received, noting that minor issues needed attention. It was noted that the grass-cutting contracts were ending this year and the committee recommended extending the contract for a further two years until March 2023. The contractor would also be required to include the cutting of the Tregele playing field. This field was supposed to be cut by volunteers but the quarterly inspection reports often noted that the grass had not been cut. It was unanimously agreed to extend the contract.

The Clerk would write a registered letter to Parry Davies Clwyd-Jones & Lloyd to arrange the return of the council's documents in order to move to another solicitor to complete registration matters.

A discussion was had on the need for a new hand rail on the path up to the Harbour hotel. Elfed Jones would contact IOACC. It was also noted that a new bench was needed in the cemetery. Council members to meet in the cemetery on Thursday morning to assess the situation.

The committee's proposal to offer a reduction of 20% for 2021 fees for those who paid before the end of April was also approved. It was noted that Jack Longman would no longer represent the council on the committee. Frank Egan was nominated as his replacement.

It was noted that the body was very important in giving the local community a voice and had done excellent work in representing the area in the consultation and planning for Wylfa Newydd. It was hoped that there would be further information on Wylfa Newydd following the DCO, which was expected at the end of the year. Derek Owen noted that the Welsh Government was eager for town and community councils to cluster and collaborate and that the partnership was a good example of this.

5.4.2 Cynghrair Twrcelyn – nodwyd bod Elfed Jones a Carys Davies wedi bod ynghlwm â'r pwyllgor ers ei sefydlu. Nododd Elfed Jones nad oedd yn gallu cynrychioli'r cyngor mwyach. Cytunwyd yn unfrydol y byddai Derek Owen a Carys Davies yn cynrychioli'r cyngor o hyn allan. Byddai'r cleric yn cysylltu â'r pwyllgor i gadarnhau ac i ofyn a oedd posib cynnal cyfarfodydd yn hwyrach yn y dydd gan fod nifer o gynrychiolwyr ar draws yr ardal yn gweithio yn ystod y dydd. Nododd Aled Jones bod y pwyllgor yn awyddus iawn i gydweithio mwy gydag ardaloedd eraill o fewn y ward. nid yn unig Amlwch.

Twrcelyn Alliance – it was noted that Elfed Jones and Carys Davies had been involved with the committee since its establishment. Elfed Jones noted that he would no longer be able to represent the council. It was unanimously agreed that Derek Owen and Carys Davies would represent the council from now on. The clerk to contact the committee to confirm and to ask whether it would be possible to convene meetings later in the day since a number of representatives across the area worked during the day.
